Pre-departure information for "U.S. National Parks"

PASSPORT AND VISA REQUIREMENTS

No official documentation is required for U.S. citizens, although we strongly recommend having your driver's license or passport with you at all times for identification purposes. If you are not a U.S. citizen, please be sure to have your required identification with you as well.

AIRPORT AND DEPARTURE TAXES

All airport and departure taxes for "U.S. National Parks" are included in the total trip cost printed on your invoice.

BAGGAGE ALLOWANCE

Airlines have varying weight restrictions on luggage. Some airlines may impose additional charges if you choose to check any baggage. Please contact your airline or refer to its website for detailed information regarding your airline's checked baggage policies. Bear in mind that your luggage will probably weigh more on your return trip due to souvenir shopping. We allow only one suitcase per person. One carry-on bag is also permitted, provided that it does not exceed 45 inches (length + width + height). There may be times when you will have to handle your own bags, and you'll find that lightweight luggage provides a distinct advantage. Make sure you label your baggage and carry valuables, medication and documents in your carry-on luggage.

CLOTHING AND PACKING TIPS

Light, loose-fitting clothing that provides comfort when exploring the sights is essential for your tour. A sun hat, sunglasses and a sturdy pair of walking shoes are recommended for sightseeing. Hiking boots might come in handy, if you plan to do any extensive walking or hiking. It's always a good idea to be prepared for any eventuality—a lightweight sports jacket and emergency rainwear are advised. Restaurants are typically informal in this region of the United States.

HEALTH

Please be aware that you will be traveling at altitudes between 7,000 and 9,000 feet above sea level on this tour. These high altitudes can sometimes cause difficulty breathing and other health problems with travelers who have heart problems or respiratory ailments. If you suffer from any of these conditions, please speak to your doctor regarding any potential health risks.

Even healthy travelers may sometimes experience altitude sickness, a temporary condition featuring symptoms of headache, fatigue, nausea and lightheadedness. Until your body acclimates to the higher altitudes, we suggest that you drink plenty of fluids and limit your intake of caffeine and alcohol.

Otherwise, there are no major health risks when traveling to this region. During the summer months, take care for sun exposure and heat. It is always advisable to check with your doctor or health-care provider for the latest updates and personal travel requirements.

CUISINE

One of the most enjoyable aspects of traveling is the delightful variety of local cuisine—even if you're not traveling abroad. After all, the United States contains some of the most varied food in the world, and your tour will hit many different historic regions. Most of the cuisine is well-known to Americans, but look out especially for delicious Mexican and Spanish food in New Mexico, as well as Southern and Texan specialties with an emphasis on meats.

TRANSPORTATION

Flights arrive in Albuquerque, where a Go Ahead representative escorts you to Sante Fe for hotel check-in. Flights depart from Jackson. All included transportation on "U.S. National Parks" is by private motorcoach.

ELECTRICITY

All regions operate on the U.S. standard 110 volts.

TIME ZONES

Most of your tour will fall on Mountain Standard Time (MST), which is two hours behind Eastern Standard Time (EST). Arizona is on Pacific Standard Time (PST) in the summer, which is three hours behind EST; and MST in the winter. For most of your tour, when it's noon in New York City, it's 10 a.m. on tour.

CURRENCY

U.S. dollars will be the currency on your tour.

TIPPING

At the conclusion of your tour, it is customary to offer your Go Ahead Tour Director and driver a gratuity. We recommend $2 per person per day for your driver and $4 to $6 per person per day for your tour director. If applicable, we also recommend $1 per local guide. Tips may only be paid in cash.

PURCHASING OPTIONAL EXCURSIONS ON TOUR

If you have not yet purchased your optional excursions, you may be able to do so while on your tour. Your tour director will only accept cash (in U.S. dollars only), Visa, MasterCard or American Express as payment for optional excursions. Please be advised that if you pay for an excursion by credit card while on tour, it may take up to three months for your card to be charged. Some optional excursions may only be purchased in advance. See the separate "Optional Excursions" sheet for more information.

Travel is, by its very nature, unpredictable. We must therefore reserve the right to change this itinerary without advanced notice to meet with local conditions at the time of travel. We appreciate your understanding. Please refer to the current catalog for terms & conditions, dates and prices.

The reservation fee is fully refundable if a cancellation is made within 72 hours of booking the tour. After 72 hours, cancellation fees do apply (see Refunds & Cancellations section). Reservations made fewer than 70 days prior to the Final Payment Due Date (see "Making Payments" section) will be refundable up until the Final Payment Due Date for the tour. Prior to the Final Payment Due Date, you may change your reservation to a new tour for a rebooking fee of $30 (which must be collected at time of rebooking) plus any difference in tour price due to price increases, changes in travel season or cost. If you have purchased insurance, you will also be responsible for any additional cost as the price of the insurance package will be based on the new tour price, which must be collected at the time of rebooking. Tour Cancellation and Interruption Insurance may be purchased up until the Final Payment Due Date for your tour. All checks and money orders should be made payable to "Go Ahead Tours, Inc." Please note that a $75 late fee will automatically be applied to accounts for which payment is not received by the Final Payment Due Date. In addition, a $30 fee will be added for any check returned to us by your bank and/or for any requested transactions. GAT reserves the right to cancel a reservation if payment is not received on time, in which case cancellation fees will apply. In the unlikely event that an invoice is not received, payment is still due as stated above. GAT will mail final travel documents and airline tickets only after your account has been paid in full and your completed confirmation statement has been received. All payments are due in U.S. dollars.

Best Price Guarantee

Applies to the price of the tour including airfare and after the value of any promotional offer or discount is applied. Valid only at time of booking for new reservations received between the validity dates above. Not applicable to tour extensions. To qualify, comparable tours must provide the same included items at an equivalent quality level, be fully escorted, have the same duration, provide the exact number and locations of overnight stays and have an equivalent departure day and date. Any eligible difference between the price of the GAT tour and a comparable tour at the time of booking will be applied as a discount to the GAT tour price. Final determination will be at GAT's sole discretion.

Pricing

Prices are per person based on double occupancy. Prices and terms in this catalog are valid until June 19, 2009, and supersede those of any previously published catalog. Airline fuel surcharges, as applicable at the time of pricing, are included in the tour prices. All prices are based on exchange rates, airfares, fuel prices, surcharges and land costs at the time of catalog pricing (January 9, 2009) and are therefore subject to increase. Please note: Government taxes and fees with respect to air travel, including the September 11th Security Fee, and port taxes are not part of the tour price. These will be billed separately on your invoice. All prices are in U.S. Dollars. GAT cannot be held responsible for fluctuations in exchange rates when calculating refunds due to trip cancellations. Referral program is not combinable with Friends & Family or Group Travel programs. Referral credits may only be applied if both referrer and referee have completed their first tour. World Traveler Club discounts are combinable with promotional offers. Total discount (including reduced cost of insurance packages if applicable) may not exceed $400.

Young Travelers

GAT doesn't accept travelers less than six years of age unless traveling on a Customized, Private or City Stay tour. Reservations for children up to age 17 will be subject to individual review and approval by GAT. Child rates are not available on GAT tours, including Land & Sea tours and optional excursions. However, triple room discounts may apply.

Triple Room Discounts

Triple room accommodations are available on a limited basis at a reduced cost. Triple rooms usually consist of a twin-bedded room with an additional cot or folding bed for the third person. Triple rooms may not be comfortable for three adults and are not available in Paris and on Land & Sea tours.

Reservations after Final Payment Date

Reservations made after the Final Payment Date (see "Making Payments") are considered Late Additions. Late Additions are accepted on a first-come, first-serve basis and will be subject to additional costs based on the availability of flights at the time of booking. Your payment must be in full in the form of a credit card at the time of reservation. Late Additions are subject to standard cancellation fees (see "Refunds & Cancellations") applicable at the time of reservation.

Revision Fees

Each traveler is responsible for providing GAT with complete and accurate reservation information by the Final Payment Date (see "Making Payments"); changes made thereafter will be considered Late Changes and are at the sole discretion of GAT. Late Changes may be subject to a service charge of $75 plus any cost GAT incurs from its suppliers. Once the tour has departed, changes affecting return date or gateway will not be permitted.

Special Arrangements

A $25 service charge plus any additional costs incurred from our suppliers is applied to deviations (such as, but not limited to, dates and gateways) from published tour itineraries. Unfortunately, GAT cannot provide transportation to and from the airport and hotel when you are not traveling with the group so you will be responsible for making your own arrangements. GAT can arrange pre- or post-tour hotel accommodations, when available, for $120 per person per night for twin or double accommodations, or $170 per person per night for single accommodations. While fulfillment cannot be guaranteed, GAT will make every effort to accommodate special travel requests. Please note: Due to the nature of GAT's hotel contracts, pre- or post-tour arrangements may be in a different hotel from that of the main tour. GAT must be notified of all special arrangement requests prior to the Final Payment Date for consideration.

Optional Excursions

Optional excursions may be purchased up to 20 days prior to departure or while on tour. Some select optional excursions require advance booking. Pre-purchased optional excursions cannot be cancelled within 20 days prior to departure or while on tour. GAT accepts payment by cash, Visa or MasterCard for optional excursions purchased on tour. Excursions require a minimum number of participants to operate; details and prices are subject to change. Due to seasonal hours of operation and availability, some excursions may not operate. If this occurs, you will be refunded any payments made for that excursion post tour. Please note: If you have received an optional excursion as a promotional offer and it was canceled while on tour, you will not be eligible for a refund as all promotional offers are not redeemable for cash.

Cruise Tours

For each cruise tour, GAT is given a certain inventory of cabin categories to reserve for its customers. Therefore, not all cabin categories (types on a vessel) are available to GAT. Please make sure to discuss all cabin preferences with your Tour Consultant at time of booking to decide which is best for you. Also, specific cabin numbers cannot be guaranteed at time of booking as they are assigned by the cruise line.

About Our Hotels

The hotels listed in this brochure will be used on most departures. If a change becomes necessary for any reason, hotels substituted will be comparable to those shown. Hotels are chosen based on criteria including comfort and cleanliness. Hotel rooms in Europe are typically smaller and less standardized than those in the United States and do not always offer air conditioning. Please note that a twin room will have two single beds placed side by side. Also, single rooms tend to be smaller than twin rooms, and may not have as desirable a location within the hotel. Please note that in Europe, it is standard policy that hotel rooms are not available for check-in before 1 p.m.

Flight Routings

In order to provide you with the lowest possible prices, GAT negotiates special rates with major air carriers. Due to the nature of GAT's contracts, air arrangements may be subject to change and to certain constraints, including, but not limited to, the availability of certain routing, travel times and direct or non-stop flights. Unfortunately, it is not possible for GAT to arrange for specific seat assignments. All specific seat assignment requests must be done within 30 days of departure and directly through the airline. GAT cannot arrange for the crediting of frequent flyer miles or guarantee booking flights in upgradeable classes of service. Nor can GAT guarantee that you will receive frequent flyer mileage credit. Occasionally, due to specific tours or flight routings, an overnight stay is required en route. If this is the case, GAT will make arrangements for hotel accommodations. Confirmation of hotel information for this overnight stay will be included in your final travel documents (see Final Travel Documents section). If you and your traveling companions make reservations at separate times and/or are originating from different gateways, you may not travel on the same flight(s). Additionally, GAT cannot guarantee that you will be on the same flight itinerary as others in a group/family if some of you have purchased the extension/return-extension and/or are doing a deviation from the tour itinerary. For New York flights, La Guardia, and J.F.K. airports are used interchangeably; for Washington, D.C. and Baltimore flights, Dulles, Ronald Reagan National and Baltimore airports are used interchangeably. GAT can sometimes offer customized flight itineraries and routings based on availability for a service fee of $75, plus any additional costs incurred from our airline partners. Any additional flight fees must be collected at time request has been accepted and are non-refundable.

Please note: Flight itineraries are subject to change up to departure due to schedule, equipment or routing changes by airlines, and GAT cannot be held responsible for these changes or additional costs associated with them. Business class upgrades may be available for an additional fee on some tours. Upgrades are based on availability and in most cases will only include overseas flights. Upgrades do not include flights between cities as designated in your tour itinerary. Each airline has its own policy on baggage allowances; please check with each airline for specific restrictions prior to travel. Some airlines may impose additional charges if you choose to check any baggage. If you exceed baggage allowances, you are responsible for any additional fees. Please contact your airline or refer to its website for detailed information regarding your airline's checked baggage policies. Many airlines have begun to issue Electronic Tickets as standard tickets for all travelers. If you are traveling on an airline that issues Electronic Tickets and wish to receive a paper ticket for your tour, a service charge of $25 in addition to any fees imposed by the airline will be applied.

Important Information Regarding Flight Delays & Cancellations

GAT cannot be held responsible for any flight delays or cancellations caused by reasons including, but not limited to, weather, mechanical or strike. In the event of a flight delay, you must work directly with the airline to be rebooked. Once your new flight is confirmed, you must then notify GAT with your new arrival time. Please note: If you are arriving later than your original scheduled flight, you may not be met by a GAT representative at the airport. If this is the case, transportation from airport to meet up with group will be at your own expense. Flight delays or cancellations causing missed tour components (including, but not limited to, meals, excursions, sightseeing tours or portions of tour) will not be refunded by GAT nor will you be able to change your return date. GAT strongly recommends purchase of our TravelSafe Gold insurance with Flight Cancellation protection so as to allow coverage for such delays and costs associated with these delays.

Making Your Own Flight Arrangements

While GAT does not encourage it, you may make your own flight arrangements for your tour. If you choose to make your own flight arrangements, you are also responsible for arranging your own transportation to and from all airports and for arranging flights between cities as designated in the tour itinerary at your own cost. If it is necessary for GAT to change or cancel the travel program in any way, you will be responsible for altering your flight plans accordingly and for any costs that result from such changes or cancellations.

Final Travel Documents

Final travel documents, including travel itineraries, hotel accommodations and airline tickets, are mailed approximately 14 days prior to departure. Final documents for cruise tours and some land tours are sent via signature-required courier service and cannot be delivered to post office boxes. A supplemental fee of $25 will apply to all international deliveries (with the exception of Puerto Rico and Canada). If your mailing address changes or you want your final documents sent to another address, you must notify GAT prior to the Final Payment Date. Otherwise, you'll be responsible for any additional mailing costs.

Refunds & Cancellations

If you cancel your reservation, the cancellation fee schedule below will apply. If you are booked in a double/twin room and your roommate cancels, you will be responsible for paying the single supplement fee at the time your roommate cancels. Upon notifying GAT of your cancellation, you will be given a confirmation number that verifies your cancellation. If you purchased insurance through GAT and are canceling for a reason covered under the policy guidelines, cancellation fees will be reimbursed to you directly from the insurance company. All insurance packages are non-refundable. In the event you have to cancel your tour on the day of departure, you must notify GAT prior to the departure of your first flight in order to file an insurance claim. Any penalties for supplemental services/reservations included but not limited to flights, hotels, late additions resulting from cancellations made at your request will be your responsibility and all service fees are non-refundable. Substitution of travelers is not permitted. If you don't show up for your trip, if you cancel your trip after the departure date or if you leave before the scheduled completion of a trip, you won't be eligible for any refund from GAT for any unused portion of your trip or reimbursement for any additional costs incurred by leaving your trip early.

Health and Capabilities

The paces of GAT tours vary, but in general require that participants be in good physical and mental health. While GAT encourages participation of disabled passengers on our tours, some itineraries and sites are not accessible by wheelchair or motorized scooter. When reserving your tour, please inform your Tour Consultant of any physical disabilities and limitations so that they can help you determine the appropriateness of the itinerary you select. If such limitations cause you to require additional assistance, GAT asks that you plan to travel with a companion who can provide assistance.

Group Travel Requirements

GAT reserves the right, up to final payment date, to reschedule or cancel any tour that has an insufficient number of travelers. If an insufficient number of travelers register for your tour (not applicable to Private or Customized tours), GAT will offer you a choice: choose another tour and/or departure date with a sufficient number of travelers; or cancel your tour without penalty. You will be responsible for all costs associated with independent travel arrangements. GAT reserves the right to cancel a tour extension for low enrollment. If GAT is forced to cancel a tour extension and a traveler thereby chooses to cancel from the tour, standard cancellation fees will apply.

Itinerary Variations and Holidays

If improvements can be made to tour itineraries or unforeseen circumstances necessitate changes, GAT reserves the right to amend, adjust or alter itineraries. GAT cannot control program changes on Land & Sea tours and/or railway tours, as cruise lines and railway companies reserve the right to make changes. GAT will make every effort to notify you as early as possible of such changes. Due to local or national holidays, seasonal hours of operation or availability, special events and/or peak harvest seasons, access to certain facilities and attractions including, but not limited to vineyards, museums, historical sites and stores may be limited. On such occasions, and whenever possible, itinerary adjustments will be made by GAT to minimize traveler inconvenience. If, however, your enjoyment might be diminished by such limitations, please check with the respective national tourist office before selecting a tour and travel date.

Passports and Visas

You are responsible for obtaining any travel documents and verifying entry requirements necessary for each country of travel on your selected tour itinerary, as GAT is not responsible for providing this information or documentation. At the time of the printing of this catalog, U.S. citizens are required to have a passport for all trips outside of the USA, including Mexico and Canada, which must be valid for at least six months beyond the completion date of the tour. Entry laws differ with respect to travelers' citizenships. You are responsible for any expenses incurred as a result of delays or itinerary changes related to your lack of appropriate travel documents and are therefore ineligible for any refund from GAT. GAT recommends that you apply for any necessary visas with a visa service. If you decide to apply for your visa directly with the applicable consulate(s) and require additional assistance and/or documentation from GAT, you may be subject to a Special Arrangements fee of $95. For more information on countries requiring visas, please refer to the U.S. Department of State website: www.state.gov.
